STORE CATTLE - 50

A very seasonal entry of stores but not surprising. A trade much stronger than anticipated especially considering the fat trade. Steers selling up to £1140/head with others at £1095, £1055 and £1000. The little steers were the dearest in pence/kilo terms with a 345kg steer making £700.

The heifers were very similar topping at £1070 for a Limousin from Mrs L Tomkins & Sons, others at £1065, £1055 and £1035. Heifers to 200p/kg.

We could have easily sold more cattle on today's trade and more are certainly going to be required as we run towards the autumn. Any amount of men around the ring for 500 cattle.

BARREN COWS - 13

A nice entry of barren cows sold to a good trade with five barren buyers forward wanting numbers. Cows topped at £1020/head for an 870kg Hereford from M/s N C Pryce & Co.

An overall average of just shy of £800/head and 119p/kg was attained topping at 137p/kg for an Angus cow from Mrs L Tomkins & Sons.

FEEDING & BREEDING BULLS - 32

A lovely entry of bulls that varied considerably in terms of quality but there were buyers for everything. The quality topped at £920 for a Blonde bull (7 months) from M/s W R K, C A & E R Jones, Bylchau Farm. An average of £670 attained topping at 222p/kg for pair of Limousin bulls from M/s M & S Bricknell, Meadow Court. The nice things, the right age are easily sold. 9/12 months is the optimum age to sell these feeding bulls. More of the right things could have easily been sold on the trade!!
